I, JOSEPH RASCHKE, being duly sworn, depose and say:

1. I am a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and have been so employed for over ten years. I am currently assigned to the FBI Violent Crimes Task Force and am familiar with fugitive investigations. The information contained in this affidavit was provided to me by Chicago Police Department Detective Bob McVicker, unless otherwise indicated.

2. On December 09, 2007, TERRANCE WOODS was shot to death in Chicago, Illinois. Subsequent investigation by the Chicago Police Department developed RANDY VAUGHN as the primary suspect involved in the shooting.

3. On April 14, 2008, the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, issued an arrest warrant for VAUGHN after he was charged with first degree murder, a felony. A copy of the arrest warrant is attached to this affidavit.

4. Attempts to locate VAUGHN in the Chicago area by the FBI and the Chicago Police Department have been unsuccessful.

5. On April 14, 2008, VAUGHN's brother was interviewed by CPD Detectives. During the interview, he was asked if he knew of his brother's current whereabouts. He stated that he did not know and that he believed VAUGHN had fled the state of Illinois.

6. Later that day, on April 14, 2008, an individual identifying himself as VAUGHN telephonically contacted Detective McVicker. Detective McVicker advised VAUGHN to turn himself in to the police, to which VAUGHN replied, "it ain't gonna happen." Detective McVicker told VAUGHN that the police were looking for him and were going to find him, to which he again replied, "it ain't gonna happen."

7. Investigation has determined that VAUGHN has relatives that live outside the state of Illinois. It has been my experience that individuals who are attempting to allude the police often stay with relatives that live away from the area where the police are searching.

8. Based on the information contained in this affidavit, I believe RANDY VAUGHN fled the State of Illinois to avoid prosecution for first degree murder.

9. The Cook County State's Attorney will extradite VAUGHN when he is apprehended.
